The Palace Collection
Designer : Abhijit Bansod

Nebula Brand Essence : 'Interpretation of Indian grandeur' - take inspiration from the grandeur of India's architecture, motifs, wealth of culture, myths and tales but redefine them in a design language that is about contemporary luxury.

At ABD, we design from our heart.

Emotion underlines our products, giving them poetic and inspired meaning. They connect deeply with the user by telling vivid stories, by overlaying the familiar with the new and surprising. We believe in celebrating creativity that combines fragments of Indian tradition with cutting-edge technology, and fuses cultural motifs and new age thinking. That conjures up sophisticated products that resonate with India's rich past. Propelled by the humor, craft, rituals, people, situations and heritage of India, we create products that speak a unique language- an Indian design vocabulary.

The Palace Collection

Under the 'Palace Collection' four collections are planned – Rambagh, Umaid Bhavan, Lake Palace and Falaknuma.

Each collection will combine precious material with a unique design vision. We intend to keep it exclusive and therefore only very limited editions are planned.

The first watch collection being launched is inspired by the exquisite Rambagh Palace.

Lotus Fountain

The moment you step in Rambagh Palace, it welcomes you with the warmth of royal energy . The entire space is so graceful and receptive that it makes you feel at home . Each corner unveils beautiful elements and The each room is so carefully detailed out; from the architectural details, furniture . The over all architecture of the palace , the beautiful courtyards, the fountains, paintings, jali work ; everything building up the unique experience of Rambagh, which is so graceful and warm.

Designed to evoke the 'romantic, 'ethereal' feeling that one associates with the Rambagh Palace

One of the main attractions of Rambagh Palace is the Polo Bar; it displays the glamour and pride of the Royal Polo. It's main feature is the characteristic fountain inside the room with Jaipur tiles creating a mosaic artwork. It radiates the equestrian prowess and style of royal men. The fountain is circulating royal energy for decades and this ever moving energy is what attracts us to its form.
