

Design Gallery

Khadi Silk Textiles

Khadi Silk Textiles - Texture and Colors

by

Uttaran Dutta

IDC, IIT Bombay

Link:

<http://dsource.in/gallery/khadi-silk-textiles>

These are examples of handspun and handwoven textiles known as Khadi and are made in India. The range depicts the textures and colors used in these textiles made of silk material.

The silk textile is spun into threads on a spinning wheel (chakra) by hand. Mahatma Gandhi encouraged the use of Khadi textiles as a means of attaining self reliance in the country.

