Shadows cast by a lightbulb on an old spiral staircase.

A swarm of birds occupy a lifeless tree against the sunset.

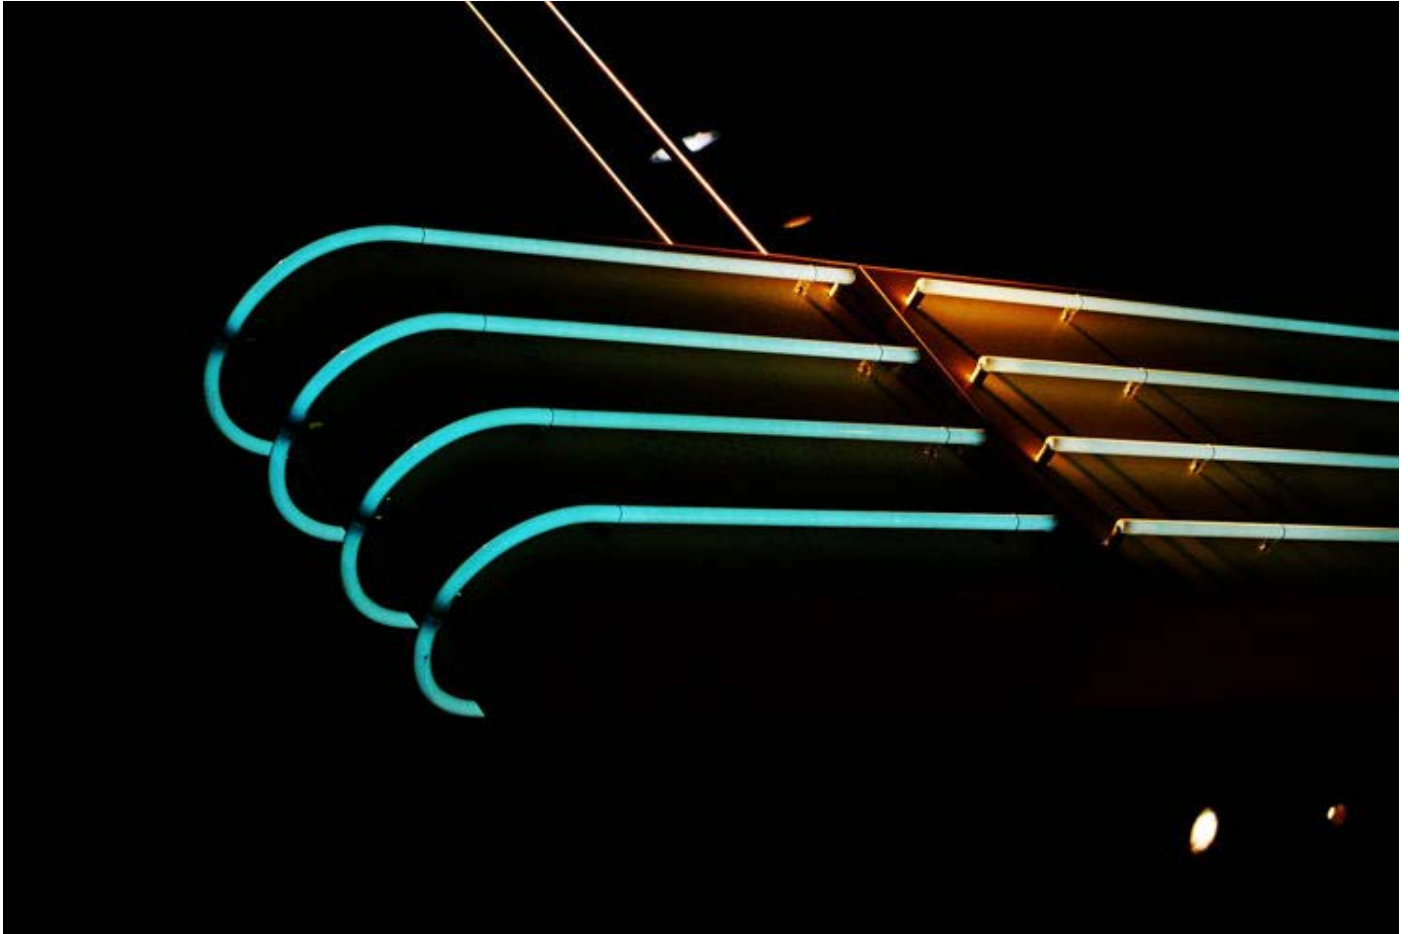

Radially turned radio knob reflecting a diffusing band of light.

Pleated curtains create a natural gradient due to the atmospheric light on the other side.

Ceiling of a church featuring a play of lights and shadows.

Countertop at a bar with pulsating, crowbar-shaped lights creating an illusion of motion.

Candles in a transparent red case demonstrate an interplay of illumination and multiple reflections.

Ceiling of a public museum appears to drop in due to the radially reflective tracks.

Sun and the sea balance each other in a beautiful confluence of light and motion.

Parking floor-signage in perspective engages with sunlight.

Particles in motion with intermittent light create an illusion of multiple existence.
